July 24th.

Dear Shirley,

Your letter which was addressed to Maureen Bullows was posted on to me and arrived whilst my wife and I were away in Lincolnshire. Sorry therefor for the delay.

I have managed to find out something for you to get your teeth into before you travel over the ponds to this side of the world.

The two sheets from the Glamorgan 1881 census show all the Martyn's in Glamorgan and also Richard the senior with his son, Richard junior living in Cross Inn road, LLantrisant. Cross Inn is now a small estate to the south east of LLantrisant, but in 1881 just a village.

Also enclosed are three sheets for LLantrisant parish church graveyard. This is the old church on the hill. I have given you a portion of the plan and providing you know where North is (!!!!) you should find the two graves belonging to your family group.

I have not as yet been able to find Richard senior nor Eliza, but when you arrive you may well be able to look at the 1871 census in the Mormon Library, the Central Library or Glamorgan Record Office, all within the City of Cardiff.

I do not have the 1891 census for the LLantrisant area yet, but hope to have it before too long, it is ordered for me. It is available at the three places mentioned earlier.

I have tried to find you some relations and have found a Barry builder who se ancestors came from Cornwall, but he seems not to have any links with Porth, Pontypridd or LLantrisant. If we can find Melville or Glenys we would be home and dry, but so far I cannot find any such person in the phone book.

You now know who Beatrice Mary married, a William Walter Ash. I may be able to follow that line for you, or at least find the husbands family. I am sorry to say that I am not on the internet and do not intend to become hooked, but perhaps rely on the work of others to produce the computer transcribed data on fiche. I can manage that !

LLantrisant itself is an old town situated on a hill. Nearby is the Royal Mint and on the hill top itself is the site of the cremation of the son of William Price, perhaps the founder of our form of cremation within the church system. This you can read about on the flight over !! (Makes good reading.)

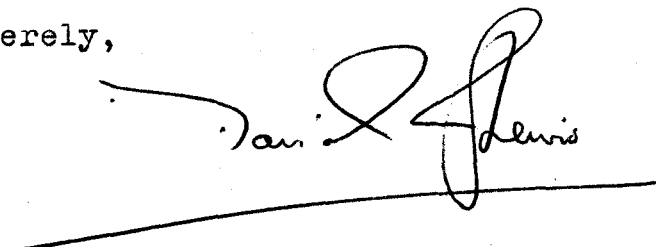

Also at the top of the town is an Art and Craft centre which is very good, complete with workshops.

Porth is within the mining area of the valleys with LLantrisant about 3½ miles to the south, just out of the mining district on the north edge of the vale of Glamorgan (so called), but it is not a valley, just a lower alluvial area or spill out from the glaciated valleys of the last ice age.

September will be a busy month for our family with two important wedding anniversaries to be celebrated so weekends may be awkward, but please ring to find out if we are available and sober. The Cardiff number is as follows 029 , 20563223. If you are in Cardiff, no need for the 029.

All the very best with your searches and it is possible I could find more information given a few more hours but I have other letters to answer.

Yours sincerely,

LLANTRISANT

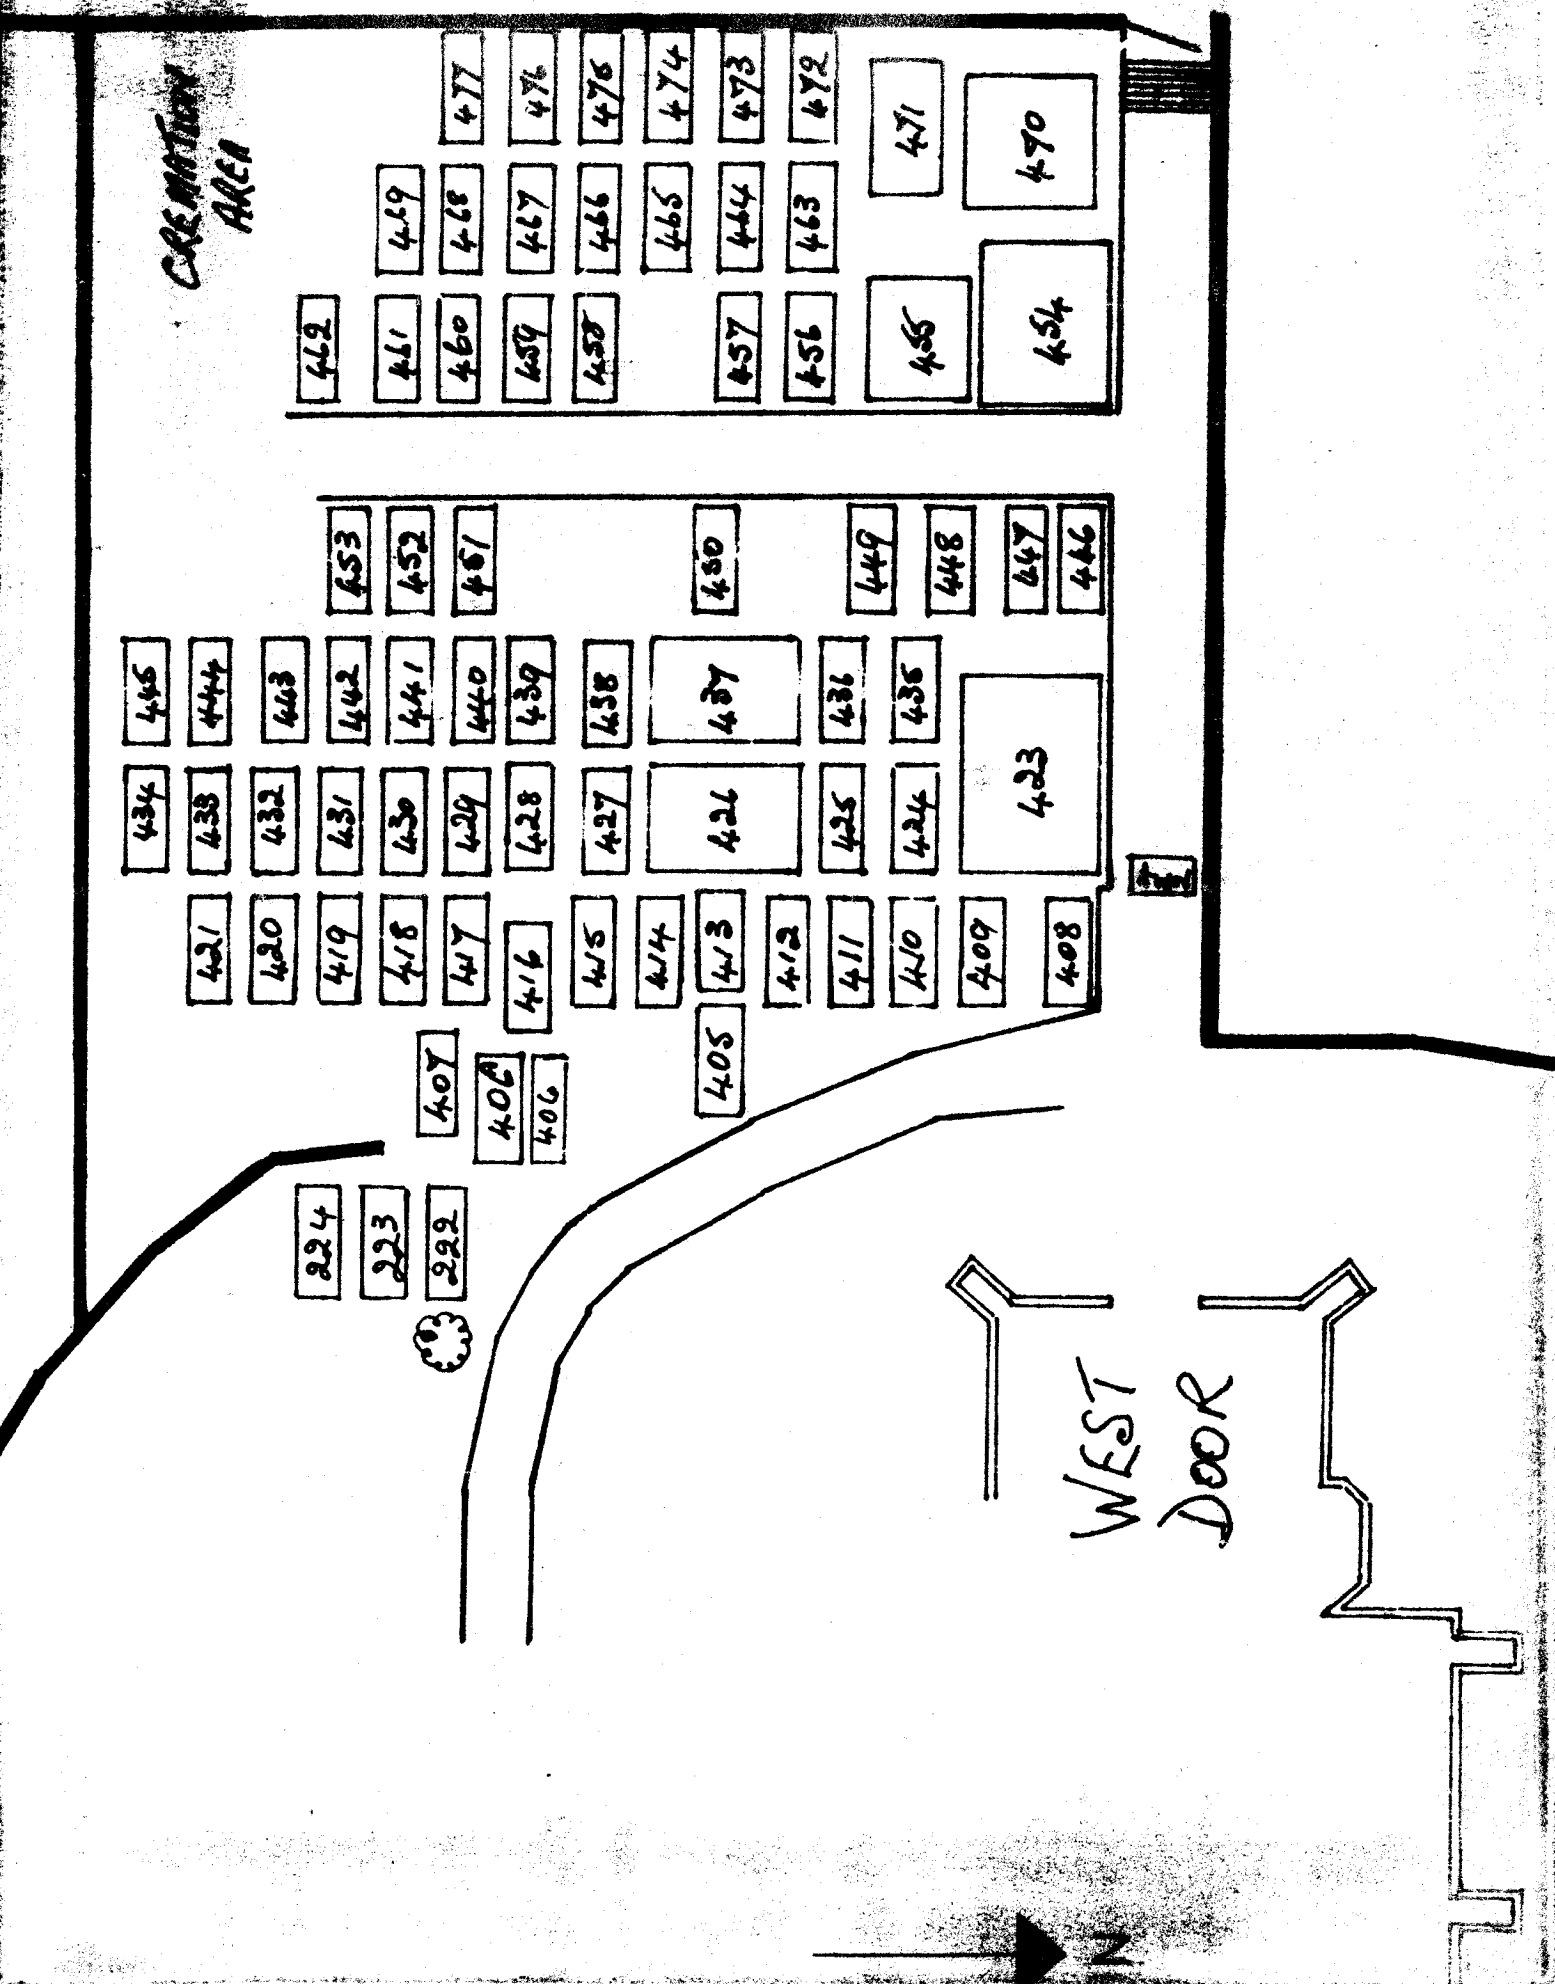

St. ILLYD.
